

“I lost everything, including my home. I was barely getting by. By the grace of God, someone told me I was able to come here and I felt relieved to have shelter. I found the support I desperately needed at the Mission. Everyone here is so wonderful and helpful. I’ve been able to meet people with similar stories and grow closer to God.”

Jesus First Program Graduate

Founded in 1911, the City Rescue Mission is a privately-funded, Christian organization providing spiritual and physical care for hurting, hungry, and homeless people in our community.

This is accomplished through services and programs offered in each of its four ministries –

Men’s Ministry, Women’s Ministry, Family Care Ministry, and Youth Ministry.

Jesus First

A RECOVERY PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

A MINISTRY OF CITY RESCUE MISSION

CityRescueMission
since 1911

Jesus First is especially for women struggling with addiction to drugs, alcohol or other strongholds.

The program is for women whose search for help has left them with a feeling of helplessness. The Jesus First Recovery Program at City Rescue Mission begins where other rehabilitation programs fall short, focusing on God's word for spiritual growth, discernment and daily living.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How much does it cost to enter the Jesus First Program?

There is no cost to the program participants as generous friends of the Mission provide the financial support for all of its services.

How long does it take to finish the Jesus First Program?

Each participant progresses through each phase of the program at her own pace. On average, it takes up to one year to complete the program.

Will I stay at the Mission if I join the Jesus First Program?

Yes, program participants can stay at Hope Place, where they are assigned a personal room for themselves.

Will I have to buy my own food and cook my meals?

Yes, Hope Place has a full kitchen with multiple appliances for guests to cook and prepare meals each day.

Will I have to attend devotions and Bible study each day?

Yes, because we know a relationship with Jesus Christ is the only proven way of success and freedom from any bondage.

JESUS FIRST: A RECOVERY PROGRAM FOR WOMEN

For women who wish to make a long term commitment to breaking the bonds of strongholds and addiction, there is the Jesus First Program. Jesus First is a long term Biblical discipleship program for women to focus on healing and recovering from their past through devotions, Bible studies, classes and spiritual guidance. Upon graduation from the program, guests will learn that through a relationship with Jesus Christ, they can leave their troubled past and start anew with hope for the future. If you are interested in joining, call 724-652-4349.

Hope Place is City Rescue Mission's women's shelter. "Hope Place feels like home. It's safe and comfortable. I feel at peace here surrounded by people who care."
