On October 8-9, Mission President & CEO Jack H. Lynn will once again sit on a bench for 24 hours to listen, talk, and share with our community.

It's part of Conversations on a Bench, a Citygate Network event taking place in dozens of cities across North America. The goal? To reflect the love of God and create space for honest conversations about homelessness, addiction, and mental health.

If you are interested in learning more about helping with this event you can email Angela Streckeisen at angelas@cityrescuemission.org
